

A Legacy of Hope for Families Living With SAVI

When a child is diagnosed with SAVI, a family's world changes in an instant. The questions, the fear, the uncertainty — these arrive long before the answers. But so does something else: the determination to fight for a future where children with SAVI can grow and thrive, and their and their family's needs can be understood.

Your legacy gift can help make that future possible.

💛 “We felt like we were walking into the dark... until someone switched on a light.”

Families often tell us that the first time they speak to our team, they feel seen — not as a case, but as parents, siblings, and children navigating something impossibly rare. A gift in your Will becomes part of that light.

It becomes:

- A specialist who answers a parent's late-night questions.
- A research project that brings us closer to treatments.
- A support network that wraps around families who feel alone.
- A voice advocating for children whose condition is often misunderstood.

Your kindness becomes part of every breakthrough, every moment of relief, every step forward.

What Your Gift Makes Possible

- Research and innovation that push the boundaries of what's known about SAVI.
- Family support, from crisis guidance to long-term care pathways.
- Awareness and advocacy, ensuring no family is dismissed or overlooked.
- Community, and peer support, where parents meet others who truly understand.

Even a small percentage of your estate can create ripples of change for generations.

How to Leave a Gift in Your Will

Leaving a legacy gift is simple and deeply meaningful:

- Speak with a solicitor or Will-writing professional.
- Choose whether to leave a percentage of your estate, a fixed amount, or a specific item.
- Use the wording below to ensure your wishes are honoured.

For UK Legacies:

(please contact us if you require a legacy pack for a non-UK country)

"I give to Foundation to Overcome Rare Genetic Errors, registered charity number 1206192 of 5 Brayford Square, LONDON, E1 0SG , [a % share of my estate / the sum of £X / specific item] for its general charitable purposes. I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer or authorised officer shall be a full and sufficient discharge."

(If you already have an existing will, you can add a simple Codicil to it. We have a Form below that you can use for this.)

Your Story, Their Tomorrow

A legacy gift is not about wealth — it's about love, belief, and the hope that no child should face SAVI without support. Your story becomes part of theirs, shaping a future where rare does not mean forgotten.
